

BA International Relations

School of Law & International Affairs

European politics, international law and technology policy.

European politics, international law and technology policy. The programme combines scientific foundations with project-based engineering practice, delivered in structured semesters with supervised teaching.

Qualification	Recognised secondary qualification or equivalent
Academic credits	180
Duration	6 semesters
Language of instruction	Deutsch / English
Start	1 October 2027
Tuition	EUR 2,450 per semester, EUR 14,700 in total
Application deadline	15 July 2027

Curriculum

Semester 1

- Introduction to International Relations
- Political Science and Comparative Politics
- Academic Skills and Scientific Writing
- Microeconomics
- Technical Language and Intercultural Skills

Semester 2

- Public International Law
- Empirical Social Research Methods
- Macroeconomics
- Area Studies
- Technology Ethics and Responsibility

Semester 3

- European Integration
- Security Studies and Conflict Research
- International Political Economy
- Human Rights and Humanitarian Law
- Research Seminar

Semester 4

- Diplomacy and Negotiation
- Development Studies
- Technology, Cyber and Global Governance
- Negotiation and Leadership
- Interdisciplinary Team Project

Semester 5

- Research Project
- Industrial Placement Semester
- Elective Modules

Semester 6

- Research Seminar
- Elective Modules
- Bachelor's Thesis and Colloquium

Learning outcomes

- Apply scientific method to technical problems
- Design, model and evaluate complex systems
- Communicate results to specialist and international audiences
- Assess technological developments in ethical and legal terms

Admission requirements

- Recognised secondary qualification or equivalent — higher education entrance qualification including mathematics and one natural science (overall grade 2.5 or better)
- Evidence of proficiency in the language of instruction — English C1 (IELTS 7.0 / TOEFL iBT 95) or German C1 (TestDaF 4x4 / DSH-2), depending on the language of instruction
- Complete application documentation — transcripts, language certificate, CV and identity document

Career opportunities

- Development and design roles in technology-driven organisations
- Research and development in institutes and industry
- Project and systems responsibility in interdisciplinary teams
- Progression to master's or doctoral study

Contact and application

Technische Universität Eisenfeld · Ludwigstraße 8 · 80539 München · Deutschland
+1 316 746 7386 · info@tueisenfeld.de · www.tueisenfeld.de